Priest: Let us pray.

The Meditation

A period of contemplative music follows the meditation.

Prayers of the People

The People stand.

The Intercessor says the prayers, leaving silences during which the People may offer up their petitions.

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for Phoebe our Bishop and Michael our Presiding Bishop; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

Pray for the Church.

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble.

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him.

Pray that they may find and be found by him.

I ask your prayers for the departed.

Pray for those who have died.

Praise God for the twelve holy apostles and all those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored.

Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

The Priest adds:

Merciful Father, accept these our prayers for the sake of your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution

The Priest bids:

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The Priest and People say:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry, and we humbly repent. For the sake of your son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest declares God's absolution:

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Priest: The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The People greet those near them in the name of the Lord; for safety, please refrain from moving about at this time.

The Offertory

The Priest says:

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God. (Ephesians 5.2)

Music is played, while the People's offerings of bread and wine, and money or other gifts, are presented and placed on the Altar. When directed by the Priest, the People stand.

The Great Thanksgiving

All remain standing.

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Priest: It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You created all things, and made us in your own image. And so we join with all the saints and angels in proclaiming your glory as we say,

All: Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts:
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Glory to you, O Lord Most High.

Creator of all, your Word has never been silent. You called Israel to be your people, and gave them as a light to the nations; through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation. In the fulness of time, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear your Son Jesus Christ to dwell among us, and to suffer death upon the cross for the salvation of the whole world. He commanded us to continue a perpetual memory of his precious death and sacrifice, as we look for the Day of his coming.

And so, Father, we bring you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you; this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate the memorial of your Son. By means of this holy bread and cup, we show forth the sacrifice of his death, and proclaim his resurrection, until he comes again.

Gather us by this Holy Communion into one body in your Son Jesus Christ. Make us a living sacrifice of praise.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

The Priest says:

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

The Breaking of the Bread

Priest: Alleluia, Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People:* Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Household groups may approach the altar to receive Holy Communion, which will be administered in one kind (Bread only). Please be mindful of maintaining social distance between households. Remain masked and return by the side aisle to your pew to consume the Sacrament there.

If you do not wish to receive the Sacrament, but desire a blessing, indicate this by folding your arms across your chest.

Post-Communion Prayer

All stand, and the Priest says:

Let us pray.

The Priest and People say:

God of abundance,
you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit,
that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world
and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior.
Amen.

Blessing and Dismissal

The Priest proclaims God's blessing:

May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Priest: Go in peace, to love and serve the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

After the dismissal, the congregation may be seated as instrumental music is played.
